SPECIAL ELECTION WILL DETERMINE FATE OF GIANT CALLAN TRACT!

Facing the possibility of a prolonged court battle, Daly City councilmen by unanimous vote Monday night agreed to call a special referendum election to let residents decide whether massive Callan Park should remain a part of the community.

City Attorney Paul Hupf was instructed to draw up the necessary papers for an "immediate" special election and recommend a date for the balloting at the next regular council meeting, Monday night, June 13.

The council's consent for a vote of the people on the controversial issue came after City Clerk Evelyn Mosman read a certificate confirming the validity of the petition signed by 4229 residents who asked that the council either rescind its regular ordinance which annexed Callan Park or put the annexation decision to a referendum.

Despite the referendum authorization, litigation still may be forthcoming between the law firm representing the citizen petitioners and the city over the validity of the second Callan Park annexation ordinance—the so designated "emergency" ordinance which supplemented the regular ordinance April 11 and made Callan Park a part of Daly City on that date, a month before the regular ordinance would have placed the tract under Daly City jurisdiction.

The East Bay law firm retained by the petitioners last week filed with the state attorney general an appeal for permission to challenge the city's emergency annexation ordinance in court. The city attorney within the next 10 days will officially "answer" this action by filing a paper stating the council majority's thinking that the emergency enactment was legal and therefore the "permission to sue" request of the petitioners should be denied.

In an apparent effort to avert additional uproars, developer Tom Callan Jr., in a letter to the council read by the city clerk, Monday night declared "it will be to the best interests of the city that such an election (referendum) be called and held as soon as possible.

Wrote Callan, "We originally petitioned this council to annex these lands in the sincere conviction that the action would be immensely beneficial to the people of Daly City—both now and in the future. During the many conferences and hearings which we participated in before you and with your department heads, many substantial and impressive facts were brought forward to substantiate this conviction. At the public hearing, held before the ordinance was adopted, there were no valid legal protests made. We are confident that the great majority of citizens of Daly City approved your action in enacting this ordinance and that they will register their approval in a referendum election."

But Councilman Joseph Verducci, only councilman who voted against the two ordinances, followed Callan's letter abruptly with a motion that the regular annexation ordinance be rescinded by the council.

Councilman Edward Dennis angrily replied: "The council's position for a referendum should be referred to the city attorney who will draw up the proper papers for the special election."

Failing to muster a second vote, Verducci's motion died.

Then Verducci moved that the referendum election should be held this November with the general election, presumably to keep the election cost at a minimum.

Mayor Frank Pacelli countered: "The wise thing to do is let the city attorney come up with the earliest possible date for this election for a quick settlement."

Hupf said he would check to see if a special election could be called within 60 to 75 days as per provisions of the initiative and referendum sections of the government code. If this interpretation is correct and the 60 to 75 days period compulsory, the council majority no doubt will follow this procedure. The council majority feel a delay on the referendum would complicate the controversy.

Attorney Edward P. O'Haire, representing the "Citizens Committee for Good Government" (petitioners), took the floor to dispute Hupf's interpretation of the "60 to 75 days" authorization. He said the council's actions in approving any portions of Callan Park "are illegal," claiming that the petition suspended the regular ordinance.

It was not clear whether O'Haire was opposed to an immediate referendum or wanted the council to repeal both ordinances in advance of a vote of the people.

The city clerk estimated a special election would cost a minimum of $6500.

Verducci, who earlier in the meeting voted against the adoption of the final map of Callan Park Unit I, then made a motion that the council rescind the emergency annexation ordinance. Dennis interrupted, "you can't rescind an ordinance with a motion; you need an ordinance to rescind an ordinance."

Hupf explained this was the procedure, but Pacelli agreed that an individual councilman has the right to ask the city attorney to draft such an ordi-

McKeon Asks Council 'Why Building Permits Still Being Withheld'

Developer George McKeon Monday night asked city councilmen "if there is some controversy" and why building permits for new St. Francis Heights homes "are being withheld."

Mayor Frank Pacelli answered that "certain things in our annexation agreement with you haven't been completed."

McKeon replied that "we have sent at least six registered letters to the council trying to iron out the annexation, but what does the annexation have to do with building permits."

The builder added that the city's failure to grant recent permits "has caused us to lay off men."

Councilman Edward Dennis urged an immediate meeting between the city staff and McKeon to resolve the problem. "I don't like this idea of men being out of work," declared Dennis, a union president by occupation.

Pacelli's reference to the annexation agreement concerned McKeon's pledge to give the city a two-acre recreation center site and building by the time the St. Francis Heights development is 80 percent complete.

Councilman Bob St. Clair interjected that McKeon's agreement "should be binding" and he pointed out that "we held up building permits during the period of freeway negotiations with the state on local routes."

Still to be resolved in the city-McKeon annexation agreement is whether the city or builder would have to pay the cost of street electroliers in the big subdivision. McKeon installed these and paid the bill, about $100,000, but it has not been determined if the agreement calls for the city to reimburse the developer for this expenditure.

Another Delay On City's Water Report 'Bothers' Councilmen

It will be at least another month before George Washington and Associates will submit their long overdue $30,000 water system report to Daly City officials, engineer Bill Dunn of the professional firm told city councilmen prior to Monday night's meeting.

Dunn explained to the noticeably ired councilmen that the report is complete but won't go to the printers for about three weeks."

All five councilmen and City Manager Edward Frank were less than even tempered about Dunn's explanation and the "regrets" expressed by Washington himself.

The council had hoped to have the report in their hands last month in order to harmonize water department needs with water system budget decisions for the new fiscal year beginning this July. Also, the council isn't too certain that the survey will introduce facts and recommendations on the system that already haven't been acknowledged and anticipated by the city staff.

The original contract for the water survey was awarded for $25,000 to Washington and Associates in June last year. The completed report was to have been delivered to the council last February 1. The firm thereafter asked for and was granted an extension, plus an

City Requests County Action On Eastmoor

Daly City Manager Edward Frank has requested County Engineer Don Wilson to immediately initiate action at county level for the installation of traffic signals at the corner of Eastmoor avenue and Junipero Serra boulevard.

Frank emphasized that since this dangerous spot is located in the county and not Daly City the county has the sole responsibility for initiating the proj- with the State Division of Highways. Gas tax funds must be appropriated for this work.

The city council has pledged full support in working with the county to eliminate the extreme hazards caused by the lack of signals at this crossing used by thousands of Daly City-Broadmoor residents.

Last Saturday's Factory Blaze Damage $18,000

Seven-mile-an-hour winds fanned flames at the Superior Box Factory, 50 Hill street, to cause more than $18,000 damage Saturday at 3 p.m.

All Daly City fire stations responded, excepting one company which was left in reserve, plus the Colma department and one Pacifica unit which stood by at the central fire station in case of emergency.

Two volunteers and two regular Daly City firemen were injured in the razing of the more than 50-year-old building. Captain Ward Albee was treated for cuts and smoke inhalation while fireman Dale Cheli received burns on his arm. Volunteers Leo Kusber and Don Letcher were treated for burns to the knee and hands.

A truck and auto near the box factory were also totally damaged. Explosions of the two vehicles' motors added impetus to the flames. Chief Elmer Kennedy estimated dam-

FATHER James Bergin, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish since 1939, knows the map of Daly City like the back of his hand. The Ireland-born clergyman was given a 70th birthday testimonial last week at the Olympic Club.

Testimonial Dinner Fetes Father Bergin, 70-Year-Old Pastor

Father James Bergin, pastor of Daly City's Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church the past 21 years, observed his 70th birthday last Sunday, five days after he was "overwhelmingly surprised" with a testimonial dinner by fellow clergymen, community leaders, and members of the parish he has guided with dignity and distinction.

Postmaster Vincent Murphy of Daly City was master of ceremonies for the testimonial held at the Olympic Country Club, Lakeside. A capacity turnout of 350 honored Father Bergin.

The Rt. Rev. Monsignor Clement McKenna, Director of St. Vincent's School for Boys in San Rafael, opened the ceremony.

Principal speakers were Superior Court Judge Frank Blum of San Mateo County and the Rev. Andrew J. Carroll, J.C.L., pastor of St. Ambrose Church, Berkeley.

Mayor Frank Pacelli of Daly City and County Supervisor Thomas J. Callan read resolutions citing Father Bergin. Parish representatives presented the honored pastor with a spiritual bouquet, a statue of the Virgin Mary, and a monetary gift.

Father Matthew Sullivan, assistant pastor of OLPH, was assisted in planning the testimonial by co-chairmen Guy Garguilo and Mrs. Anthony Ricci, and Constantine Ragone and Mrs. Pete Lofrano, representing the men's and women's clubs of the parish.

The message on the programs for the event read:

"We have gathered here tonight to honor and express our gratitude to our beloved pastor and friend, Father James Bergin, and to join with him in celebrating his attaining his seventieth birthday. But foremost in our minds should be the rewards that we and our children will achieve because of the tireless efforts of this dedicated priest of 44 years.

"His task is a difficult one but, with the tenacity of a son of Eire, he calls a spade, a spade, and yet, in utter humility, he calmly watches over his flock.

"May your life be long, Father Bergin, and may we, your parishioners, thank God for

$21,864 To Ready Library

Acceptance of the new $96,000 Westlake fire station and award of a $21,864.21 contract for furnishing the $143,700 Westlake library were voted by the city council Monday night.

Final payment of the firehouse, located at the corner of Lincoln and Edgemont, will be made after 35 days.

The new main library on Southgate is expected to open this September. City Manager Edward Frank noted that the council last year appropriated $30,000 for library furnishings, leaving a balance of $8136 which could be used to purchase books for the new facility.

The $21,240 furnishings appropiation included $17,240 to Remington Rand, $3199 to D. Cunningham and Associates, and about $688 for non-bid items.

Both the library and fire station projects were financed by capital outlay funds.

In other agenda business, the council:

1. Granted use permits for two-family flat on property on Mission street west of Evergreen avenue, to Val Connolly for reinstallation of his sign at Val's on Junipero Serra, and to Mike's Used Cars, 7001 Mission street.

2. Closed public hearing on Daly City's master Land-Use plan, a "guide" to future zoning. Mission street merchant

Council Seeking New Ambulance Firm For City

The city council Monday night unanimously moved to terminate M&D Ambulance Company's contract with Daly City within the next 30 days and contract for the services of another firm.

The move was long planned by the council and city department heads who haven't been satisfied with M&D service.

A representative of the Peninsula Ambulance Company of Redwood City Thursday night met with the council in study session and expressed interest in the contract. Peninsula Ambulance, operating under ambulance association rates, has been in business 17 years serving the area from Belmont south to the Santa Clara County northerly boundary.

A Daly City and South San Francisco agreement with Peninsula Ambulance is expected. Main item to be worked out is location of the ambulance station or stations in this area.

Last year when Pat Strasser won the event there were 15 contestants. Chairman Fred Martin today said he "wouldn't be surprised if we have about 25 girls this time."

The judges will rate the girls 50 percent for beauty, 25 percent on poise, and 25 percent for personality. All the young ladies need do is wear a bathing suit, high heels and big smiles on Friday night, June 3, when preliminary judging will be held at poolside, 305 Palmcrest drive, Doelger's new apartment building. COMPLETION of the new water pump house at Daly City Reservoir No. 6 west of Skyline boulevard was marked Friday as City Engineer Bill Chapman (second from right) and Water Dept. Supervisor Gus Ford explained the function of the surge tank to City Manager Edward Frank and Mayor Frank Pacelli. The booster station serves 163 homes in Westlake Unit 9 (from Menlo avenue up to the reservoir) and will serve 84 homes in Unit 11. The reservoir itself supplies water for all homes in Units 9, 10, 11, portions of St. Francis Heights and parts of Westlake Units 7 and 8. THE RECORD photo

POLICE CHIEF CITES 'FLOOD OF CALLS'

'Cooperation' During Emergencies Requested

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi today urged the cooperation of Daly City residents in asking them not to "flood" the police headquarters switchboard with inquisitive phone calls when such alarming incidents as Monday night's sonic blast occur.

Petrocchi and his assistant, Roy McLaren, said the police department's phone was kept continuously busy Monday evening "for more than an hour" after the jet boom stirred up area-wide confusion.

"Our police headquarters dispatcher and two other officers were answering these inquiries while other emergency police and fire calls were unable to get through to us," explained Petrocchi. "This is a serious matter and critical when we are unable to receive other emergency calls and dispatch officers to cover such cases."

The chief said Dispatcher Charles Machinot, Sgt. David Hansen and Officer Jim Bergstrom answered more than 1000 calls on the sonic blast between 9:20 and 10:45 Monday evening. Both the police-fire emergency phone, PL 5-4212, and the city hall central switchboard number, PL 5-0850, were ringing constantly. Meanwhile, communication on other police emergencies was almost cut off completely by the volume of the sonic boom inquiries.

Petrocchi advised residents to listen for the city's emergency horn blasts as notification of emergencies. He also reminded that the Conelrad channel on radio should be turned on in such cases for area and nation-wide emergency announcements.

The city's emergency horn warnings are as follows:

National disaster signal — two short blasts, silence, then two short blasts—repeated five times.

Fires—six blasts (calling out volunteers), followed by six more blasts if off-duty regular firemen are needed.

Air raid warning — 30 long blasts.

Air raid attack (take cover) —30 short blasts.

Petrocchi pointed out that emergency calls to police headquarters on "what happened" incidents such as the jet boom should be made by residents only if they see an explosion or fire or situation that requires police and fire department response.

Coast Guardsman Arrested At Woodrow Wilson

Officer Matthew Murray arrested Nieves E. Saldate, 34, a coast guardsman of the Lime Point Station, on charges of annoying children here Monday at 7:40 p.m.

Police received a call from Easter Walton, 108 Knowles avenue, who said that a man was inside the Woodrow Wilson school yard. Saldate told Murray that he simply followed a dog into the school yard.

While he was being questioned at the station both desk dispatcher Charles Maschinot and Officer Steve Steen noticed that Saldate resembles a picture of a man wanted for exposure cases here. The picture is hanging in the squad room of the police department. There are five cases of exposure reported against the pictured man.

Judge Charles Becker set $525 cash or $1050 bond bail on Saldate.

Skyline Drive Man, 49, Dies Of Heart Attack

Philip S. Penberthy, 49, 85 Skyline drive, was pronounced dead at his home by the attending physician Sunday at 6 a.m.

Mrs. Penberthy said her husband apparently suffered a heart attack at 3 a.m. She notified the police at 5:30 a.m. Officers Al Nicolini and Harold Tunnell arrived and watched firemen of company No. 5 administer oxygen. The doctor arrived a short time later and pronounced Penberthy dead.

age to the two vehicles at $1000. The gusts of wind blew the flames 30 feet away to where the home of Mrs. Jennie Boicelli, is located.

Angelo Chelone, 78 Hill street, husband of one of the land owners, told Battalion Fire Chief Frank Specht he saw three grammar school children, carrying knapsacks, starting a grass fire. He tried to hurry over to the factory site but had to slow down as he has a heart condition. He notified the fire department.

Boicelli's home had $3000 damage. The outside of the residence was burned at the southwest corner and some water damage was done to furniture inside as streams of water from fire hoses crept through to the interior.

Kennedy said the heat was so intense that one of the new fire trucks, standing 60 feet away, had cracked windows.

It took firemen 45 minutes to get the blaze under control but it was more than eight hours before the fire was completely out. Kennedy said the firemen had to tear the boxes apart to completely distinguish the flames. The boxes, orange, apple and corn crates had been stacked eight to ten feet high in the building.

The corn crates are very flimsily made and burned with great abandon. The owner of the box factory is Sam Gilbert, 1831 33rd avenue, San Francisco, while one of the property owners is Mrs. Mary Chelone, 78 Hill street. Kennedy had a fire watch at the factory all night long to make sure the blaze did not start up again.

Referendum

nance for council decision. This will be presented at the next meeting.

The council by 4-1 vote adopted the final map of Callan Unit 1 and accepted Callan Company's $100,000 surety performance bond.

But the council tabled action on approval of the tentative map of Callan Park Unit 2 on motion of Verducci by 5-0 vote. In view of the referendum and court suit, there appeared to be some question as to the legality of council action one way or the other on the second Callan Unit due to the effect and timing of the referendum "go ahead" decision.

The council's decision to allow a referendum election may have indicated that both political and legal complications might ensue had the referendum been denied and the matter litigated in court following authorization of such a case by the attorney general.

The council made no public comment Monday night about the possibility that the attorney general might not allow the issue to go to court.

If the referendum vote sustains the council majority's vote for Callan Park, and the attorney general meanwhile authorizes litigation to decide the validity of the emergency ordinance, the petitioners no doubt will follow through in court against the emergency enactment.

Conversely, should citizens reject Callan Park at the polls, it is felt the council also will repeal the emergency ordinance and the big tract will revert to unincorporated, county status.

Woman, 77, Dies Of Heart Attack

Ida C. Ehlers, 77, 436 Bellevue avenue, was pronounced dead of a heart attack Monday at 11:48 p.m. by the attending physician.

Mrs. Bessie Runge, 42, notified police that her mother in law, living at her home, was the victim of a heart seizure. She had been a heart patient for the past two years and became ill at 11:15 p.m. Monday. She complained of coughing and difficulty in breathing. When her gasps became more hurried a doctor was notified. He pronounced the woman dead when he arrived.

Officer William Schumacher said firemen of Company 2 administered oxygen before the doctor came.

Supt. Morgan Asks Study Of Multi-storied High Schools

Jefferson High School District Superintendent Ed Morgan said he received a reply to a letter he sent to Sacramento from H. H. Jaqueth, chief of the local allocations division of the department of finance, which stated that the state would consider a study of multi-storied high schools.

Morgan's letter noted that "Our district is influenced by San Francisco policies and regulations. Many Westlake residents believe they are connected with the San Francisco District. The 18-acre Southeast High School in San Francisco is a three story building currently under construction and people here cannot understand why only a few miles away there is difficulty in getting multi-storied schools." (Morgan was referring to the recent comments about Terra Nova, a three storied structure).

The letter sent to Paul Hoyenga, supervisor of agency services, also stated: We would desire a study of multi-story building sites. In our district it is difficult to find sites that reach the state minimum acreage allowance as demanded by the state. With sub-standard sites, buildings must go up in the air."

Jaqueth's reply stated that such a study would be a worthy undertaking. The director said he would seek recommendations from Morgan and other district superintendents in the future.

Ironically, the same night, Monday, that Morgan told of the letter replying to "going up in the air with buildings," Architect Mario Ciampi gave a report on the Jefferson gymnasium renovation stating that the building would have to go down farther into the ground.

Giampi said that the gym, originally planned for 700, is now being designed to accommodate 1500 students. The building cannot be enlarged as there is a property line on the left and driveway to the right. "Therefore," Ciampi said, "we will have to either go up or down."

Ciampi said it would be feasible to place the lockers under the ground floor of the main gymnasium. As the old auditorium will be changed into a library the gymnasium will also have to serve as an auditorium, he stated.

The architect said he would not change the basic structure of the building but will bring it up to the standard of those at the two new high schools, Oceana and Terra Nova.

sending you our way.

"Many happy returns!"

Father Bergin later said that he might take a vacation trip "someday" back to Ireland to see his two older brothers, Michael and William, now retired, who reside in Dublin.

Father Bergin was born May 22, 1890, at Mount Rath, Queens County, about 50 miles south of Dublin. He studied for the priesthood at St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, Ireland, from 1910-12, and at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Maryland, from 1912-1916.

He was ordained on May 25, 1916, at Cathedral of the Assumption, in Baltimore, by His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons. From 1916 to 1930 he served as assistant pastor in the Archdioces of San Francisco. The next six years he was pastor of Our Lady of the Pillar at Half Moon Bay. From 1936-1939 he was pastor of St. Sebastian's in Sebastopol. He was appointed pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help in 1939.

additional $5000 to include a cost deficiency factor on the water system in the report. Deadline for this extension was to have been May 1, 1960. The company earlier this month informed the council by letter that it would be unable to deliver the complete report this month. Washington's staff failed to show up as scheduled at last week's council study session, but they turned out in force Monday at 7:30 p.m.

Dunn declared that the deficiency factor on the water system here amounted to about $800,000 in needed improvements. His firm's report is expected to recommend higher water rates, as well as other improvements, location of new wells, et cetera.

Mayor Frank Pacelli concluded Monday's conference by instructing City Attorney Paul Hupf to check out the city's contract to determine if there was a breach of contract. Dunn maintains that the extensions were authorized by the council and that the language of the agreement did not set specific deadlines but merely approximated them.

City Finance Director Joseph Arch said Washington and Associates have been paid (in installments) all but $3000 (10 percent of the contract) of the total $30,000. The money comes from the city's water reserves.

Fireman's 2-Year Son Dies As Bad Luck Continues

Two-year-old Richard Allard Jr., son of volunteer fireman Richard Allard, 140 Werner street, was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra Hospital last Thursday at 2:15 p.m.

The tot was transported to the hospital by M&D Ambulance, according to Officer Steve Steen. A coroner's inquest showed the baby died of bronchial pneumonia, acute laryngitis and acute epiglotitis.

Allard has been at home for the past two months after suffering a broken ankle at the Meussdorffer Estate fire.

CHAMBER SEEKS COURT HERE, CROCKER RESERVOIR-PARK SITE

Daly City's Chamber of Commerce is working on two special community service projects — bringing a municipal and superior court here and attempting to obtain a new reservoir-park site in the Crocker hills east of town.

At last week's Chamber meeting, President Louis Pisani reported that representatives had discussed the court projects with City Manager Edward Frank "who has some good ideas," and Fred Martin's letter on the reservoir-park suggestion was ordered sent to the city council.

Managing Director Pete Markovich read a letter to the Chamber from Governor Pat Brown in which the latter stressed that the $80,000 improvements contract on Mission street had been awarded, thus it is too late for modifying the state plans. A Chamber committee headed by motel owner Hugh Smith Jr. earlier had asked the City Council and State Division of Highways to rule out a concrete center division strip, claiming Mission street merchants are opposed to the divider but want the rail tracks removed and the resurfacing done.

Chamber President Louis Pisani's guest speaker last week was Gerald M. Schneider, "referee" for the Juvenile Traffic Court of San Mateo County. Schneider discussed the purpose of the court and the volume of cases it handles.

Joan Gibson of Bank of America, resigning as clerical secretary of the Chamber, was presented a token gift from the membership. Alyce Shea of Westlake has assumed the job. Mrs. Shea also is secretary-manager of Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association.

Council Agenda

Ray Charette again protested the land-use document, calling it "impractical" and "lacking in projection." Charette cited the survey firm's "poor planning in the Mission street commercial district."

3. Closed hearings on rezoning property east of Market street to industrial, and C-2 zoning for newly annexed Fuchs-Olcese property.

4. By 4-1 vote approved resolution authorizing city agreement with state for Skyline-Edgemar freeway interchange. An underpass will be tunneled under Edgemar freeway to allow Unit 11 residents access to Westmont and Edgemar freeway north into Daly City.

5. Tabled action on small Garrone-Del Monte annexation, and introduced ordinance on likewise small Nolan annexation.

6. Granted business licenses to Almeda and Louis Nieves, 200 Crocker avenue, for grocery store; Charles E. Robinson, 327 South Mayfair, stationery supplies; J. F. Pardella and W. J. Martenson Jr., service station at 7200 Mission street; H. Hall, R. Hall and R. Calechi, car wash at 2425 Junipero Serra boulevard, and Walter McKean and Silvio Olcese, grocery store at 6001 Mission.

Eight Arrested At Motel But Seven Released

Seven of eight persons arrested here at the Mission Bell Motel, 6840 Mission street, were released last week following a police line-up in San Francisco.

One of the night managers at the motel told Officer Jim Doran that the eight people seemed suspicious. He commented to Doran that the people were entering and leaving at unusual hours.

Lieutenant Bruno Conci, Sergeant Charles Terry and Captain Roy Beecher plus three San Francisco investigators watched the motel for more than an hour. Following a San Francisco robbery all eight were picked up last Thursday.

They were arrested merely for investigation. All are from Tacoma and have been in this area at different times. It was at first believed that they might be part of a 15 member gang.

The only one held was Webba H. Arms, 24, a laborer, who was being held for Los Banos police who alleged he might be involved in a $2000 loss of cash.

'Smoking In Bed' Causes $450 Fire At W'lake Home

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy estimated $450 damage to the home of Art Esmarch, 210 Wilshire avenue, Sunday following a 12:15 a.m. blaze.

Kennedy said that Esmarch had evidently been smoking in bed. The mattress and bed springs were completely damaged and the bedroom floor was scorched.

The Esmarch family tried to extinguish the blaze themselves, found they couldn't, and notified the fire department. Kennedy said it took firemen 15 minutes to put out the fire.

Policemen Watch Him Write Letter, Stop Suicide Try

Police watched Robert Curtis, 30, 519 South Mayfair avenue, as he wrote a suicide letter and then broke in through the front door to stop him from taking his life Monday at 10 p.m.

The dispatcher received a call from Mrs. Lois Jovich, 6586 Mission street, who said that her son-in-law had attempted suicide. In addition, a neighbor, Patricia Williams, 26, 4 Crestwood drive, also phoned in to report the incident.

Sergeant David Hansen and Officer Matthew Murray peered in through the window after Curtis refused to open the door and saw him writing a letter. Murray went back to the front door and knocked more loudly. Hansen watched Curtis as he placed a chair under the front door knob and returned to the table.

Hansen broke the window as Special Officer Cuneo arrived at the scene with the key to the front door. Cuneo and Murray forced the door away from the chair.

Hansen described Curtis as "disheveled, unsteady and inconsolable." The three officers struggled with Curtis, finally handcuffing him. The three page suicide letter noted that Curtis had swallowed 10 phenobarbital pills.

When Hansen read this he mixed a "soapy hot water concoction" and forced Curtis to swallow it. The M&D Ambulance arrived and transported Curtis to Junipero Serra Hospital where his stomach was pumped. He was later transferred to Community Hospital where a 72-hour hold was placed on him.

Curtis, in the letter, said he was despondent as his estranged wife Lucy, 26, had left him. He told of his feelings toward her in the lengthy letter and blamed "friends" for breaking up their marriage.

Juveniles Wreck Inside Of Mill

Juveniles did $71.50 damage and walked off with $88.25 worth of tools from the Doelger Building Corporation Mill at 91 South Mayfair avenue Monday night.

Mill foreman Vince Schoenstein related the mischievous mischief to Officer John Coleman. The juveniles tried to break into a candy machine, a cigarette machine and did take money from a coke machine's container. They scattered employees time cards throughout the building and slashed the leather seats in trucks.

They broke numerous windows, cut a high pressure air hose, chopped a hole in the sheet metal sidewall and creased a door with an axe mark. Coleman said they apparently gained entrance through the roof of the structure.

JESD Classified Employees Get 3% Pay Raise

Jefferson Elementary District trustees approved a three per cent salary increase for 270 classified employees, effective July 1.

The three per cent is a $15 increase at all steps. The additional expenditures will cost the district a total of $20,260.

Classification pay raises are for the following: Custodian, bus driver, janitress, maintenance man, warehouse worker, bookkeeper, office secretary, clerk, receptionist, secretary to the assistant superintendents, secretary to the superintendent, and building secretaries.

Hourly rates, at three per cent, were increased for cooks, cook helpers and supervisor.

Superintendent Richard Foster said the pay raise puts classified employees on a par or perhaps even better than that of industry.

No Double Sessions Expected At Elementary Schools In Fall

"No double sessions' is the aim of the 16 school Jefferson Elementary District for the Fall semester, Superintendent Richard Foster told trustees while releasing the tentative placement schedule for the 1960-1961 school year.

Foster said that triple kindergarten sessions will be held. He noted that there is more strain on the teachers than on the children at this level. There is a difference of but 20 minutes between the regular kindergarten and the triple session, he added.

Foster commented that it will be a "tight schedule" for all children as 450 students will be housed in multi-use rooms until new schools are opened.

TENTATIVE PLACEMENT

ABRAHAM LINCOLN (Lincoln avenue and Southgate drive)—Will house all youngsters in Areas 7 and 11 (Terrace); will house 2 full Kindergartens, 4 firsts, 3 seconds, 3 thirds, 2 fourths, 2 fifths, and 2 sixths, using all classrooms, library, and 2 classrooms in M.U. room. They will be 2 classrooms short (to be housed at Vista Mar in the M.U. room).

COLMA K-6 (Hillside boulevard and Market street) — Will house 1 triple-session Kindergarten and 15 classrooms, which will require from its original figures the establishment of one, possibly two, combinations in order to reduce classroom needs. It will continue to house 3 classrooms at Colma Upper.

COLMA UPPER (601 Market street)—Will have to arrange its offerings to receive 3 classes from Colma K-6.

CROCKER (649 Bellevue avenue)—Will house 1 second, 3 thirds, 3 fourths, 3 fifths, and will have 3 sixths. They will be 3 rooms short at Crocker and the 3 sixths will be housed at Westlake until the opening of the George Washington School.

DANIEL WEBSTER (Cerro and El Dorado drive) — Will house all the youngsters in the Daniel Webster area, in addition to all youngsters who live east of St. Francis boulevard and south of Eastmoor who would normally go to the M. P. Brown School. They will house a triple-session Kindergarten, 2 firsts, 2 seconds, 2 thirds, 2 fourths, 2 fifths, and 1 sixth, and will have left 1 classroom and a M.U. room. They will receive 2 classes from Thomas Edison to fill these rooms.

FERNANDO RIVERA (Alemany and Lake Merced boulevards) — Will house 1 third grade, 3 fourths, 2 fifths, and 2 sixths; will have left 4 classrooms and 1 Kindergarten. To fill its 4 classrooms, they will take from the proposed M. P. Brown area 1 third grade, 1 three-four combination, 1 fifth, and 1 sixth, to be transported intact. If Rivera is not ready for the opening of school, we will double-session Westlake.

GARDEN VILLAGE (208 Garden Lane, Colma) — Will house all the Kindergarten, first, and second grade children from the total Garden Village-M. P. Brown area (except those children who live east of St. Francis and south of Eastmoor), which will mean they will have 2 full Kindergartens, 3 firsts, 3 seconds, 2 thirds, 1 fourth, 2 fifths, and 1 sixth.

GENERAL PERSHING (631 Hanover street)—Will house 1 triple-session Kindergarten, 3 first grades, 3 second grades. One of the second grades will go to Crocker.

JEFFERSON (14 Allemany street) — Will house 1 triple-session Kindergarten and 1 each of each grade level, and will have available for use 3 classrooms and a M.U. room. Will receive 3 fifths and 2 sixths from Woodrow Wilson, with 2 classes to be housed in the M.U. room.

OLYMPIA (200 Northgate avenue) — Will house 2 full Kindergartens, 4 firsts, 3 seconds, and 1 third for the youngsters in the immediate area of Olympia.

THOMAS EDISON (Lincoln avenue and Southgate drive)—Will house all of the Thomas Edison children, in addition to all the youngsters normally classified as Christopher Columbus (Area 10). They will house 2 full Kindergartens, 3 firsts, 3 seconds, 3 thirds, 2 fourths, 1 fourth-fifth combination, 2 fifths, and 2 sixths, using all classrooms, library, 2 classes in the M.U. room, and will be 2 classrooms short (to be housed at Daniel Webster in the M.U. room).

THORNTON (100 Castle street)—Will house 1 fifth and 1 sixth, and will accept from Woodrow Wilson 1 fourth and 1 sixth. Only 18 children can be sent from the fourth grade and 25 from the sixth.

VISTA GRANDE (345 Thiers street) — Will house its own Kindergarten and will use its 6 classrooms for youngsters through fourth grade.

VISTA MAR (725 Southgate avenue)—Will house 13 classrooms and 2 Kindergartens, leaving the M.U. room for Abraham Lincoln children.

WESTLAKE (80 Fieldcrest drive)—Will house 11 classes from its own area and will have left 2 regular classrooms and Kindergarten. Will accept 3 sixths from Crocker.

WOODROW WILSON (43 Miriam street)—Will house 2 full Kindergartens, 4 firsts, 3 seconds, 4 thirds, 3 fourths, and 2 sixths. They will send 18 fourth graders and 25 sixth graders to Thornton.

Oceana, W'moor Students Can Not Change Sessions

Jefferson High School District trustees Monday night declared that no variations of the zone rule would be permitted. Students on the Pacifica side of the boundary line will have to attend Oceana and those in the Westlake area will have to attend Westmoor.

Superintendent Ed Morgan said some of the requests concerned working hours, preference of the parents choice, Westmoor offering certain special classes not at Oceana and "I want my son to play on the Westmoor baseball team."

Morgan told the board that many of the requests were reasonable but if members made exceptions then they would have to be equitable to all. "I'm sure that if that happened we would find ourselves flooded with requests to change from afternoon to morning or morning to afternoon sessions."

The superintendent noted that more than 100 youngsters have newspaper routes in the afternoon and wished to attend morning sessions. However, the board agreed that no delineations would be made from the rule.

Morgan said that he had only received one call asking for a change in school but Westmoor Principal Glenn South, Vice Principal Thanos Panagoulias and Oceana Dean of Boys Ernie Ribera had received many requests.

Templeton Avenue Woman Treated For Pill Overdose

Constance Alameda, 33, 514 Templeton avenue, was treated for an overdose of nerve pills Tuesday at 11:20 p.m.

She was transported to Junipero Serra Hospital by M&D Ambulance. Officer Matthew Murray said the woman apparently attempted suicide following a quarrel with her husband.

RED CROSS SCHEDULES SUMMER SWIM PROGRAM AT JEFF POOL

Jefferson Union High School District announces dates of the summer swim campaign sponsored jointly by the District and the Golden Gate Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Instruction will be given at the Jefferson High School pool, Daly City. The courses commence June 20 and will run through August 26. There will be five campaigns, each campaign running ten days, and each class one-half hour long. Instructions will be given from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

These classes will be taught by accredited Red Cross instructors, and are available to non-swimmers, beginners, intermediate and swimmers.

Registration blanks have been distributed to all elementary schools and must be properly filled in and returned in person with a fee of $2.50 to Jefferson High School in care of Michael Orlich. Registration hours will be every evening from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m., and Saturday from 2:30 p.m. until 4 p.m.

Orlich, athletic director at Jefferson, in charge of the Red Cross swim campaign, said: "This summer's swim campaign is designed to train youngsters in the rudiments of swimming and water safety. May drownings are the result of ignorance or carelessness. Red Cross water safety training combats both of these major causes of catastrophe. We urge everyone who cannot swim to avail himself of the opportunity offered by the Jefferson High School district and the Red Cross."

Police Skeptical Of 'Zany' Story; Investigate Case

Larry Zane Wilson, 26, 152 Sagamore street, a printer, was picked up for outstanding Oakland traffic warrants totalling $35 and is being held for investigation of burglary at the Blossom Garden Supply, 2493 Junipero Serra boulevard, which occuried Monday at 9:40 p.m.

Police received a call notifying them that a burglary was in progress at the Garden Supply. Officer Matthew Murray said he saw a man jump over a fence but couldn't catch him. A few minutes later Officer James Bergstrom spotted Wilson at School and Station streets.

Bergstrom said Wilson was "breathing heavily and beads of sweat were on his forehead." Wilson told Bergstrom that a man he had met earlier in the day had stolen his wallet and had run into the Garden Supply Company. He said he gave chase and then saw flashlights (being shined by policemen) and ran from the establishment.

Bergstrom brought him back to his auto which was parked in front of the Garden Supply. A sack of "peat moss" was found in the trunk of the car. Wilson claimed that a friend in Oakland had bought it. The man, contacted by phone later, said he had bought it from a Daly City nursery shop.

Bergstrom doubted Wilson's story as the man's auto was parked on an angle about six feet from the fence of the establishment. Normal parked cars are not on such an angle, the officer noted in his report.

Wilson was picked up in San Francisco for a shoplift charge on October 22. Bail was set at $525 cash for the episode here.

TRUSTEES ENDORSE NEW LEGISLATION FOR STATE AID

Jefferson Elementary School District trustees passed a resolution in support of Proposition 2 which will go before the public on the June primary ballot.

Superintendent Richard Foster said, "Our entire future building program is invested in the success of Proposition 2. Our allotment from the state will be zero if the $300,000,000 state school bond issue is not passed."

Foster added that the bill is the "highest priority to education and students in the Jefferson Elementary District." He said a two-thirds vote is necessary for passage.

The trustees directed the superintendent to inform all PTA's and local groups of the resolution.

Power Saws Valued At $1188 Stolen

Leonard A. Mjehovich, 310 Wildwood drive, South San Francisco, foreman for McKeon Building Inc., said that $1188 worth of power saws had been stolen from the Company over the past eight months.

He said that 13 power saws have been taken from trucks and the warehouse. Officer Les Bastedo told the foreman that due to the lapse of time involved it is impractical to make an investigation. The case was marked suspended.

AROUND TOWN

By ROY HURLBERT

Jerry Schneider said a mouthfull last week when the youthful juvenile traffic court "referee" told Daly City's Chamber of Commerce about teenagers and their driving habits.

He recited these facts in the space of 15 minutes:

Sixty-two million Americans have been killed in motor vehicle accidents since the first auto rumbled down the road.

The "worst offenders" are 20-year-old male drivers — usually because they're independent of mom and dad and want to impress the young ladies.

San Mateo County has the highest family income of any county in the United States, yet San Mateo County has no traffic safety council and boasts (?) the poorest traffic safety record in the state of California.

Only eight percent of our young drivers are dangerous on the highways.

Law enforcement authorities don't try to penalize highway offenders as their primary objective. Instead they attempt to educate them for a sense of responsibility.

Presently, the county holds traffic school for juvenile offenders in Daly City, San Mateo and Redwood City. A fourth class will be started this August in Belmont. California Highway Patrolmen conduct these classes, which are indeed not dull but give the young men a chance to "speak up" and learn to their own advantage.

During August of 1959, for statistical example, a total of 556 juvenile traffic citations were issued in the county. Only 52 of these recipients were girls (more boys drive cars, of course).

Fines collected from these citations amounted to $157.50.

The offenses included 162 tickets for speeding, 160 for mechanical defects (including registration), 53 were for no operator's license, 51 were for disobeying traffic signals, 33 were for failure to stop at a major arterial, 25 were for driving without licenses in possession, and 21 were for unlawful passing.

There was only one case of reckless driving.

Two hundred and thirty-seven of the 556 citations were issued to first offenders. One hundred and forty juveniles were in court a second time.

Sequoia High in Redwood City had the most citations — 50. San Mateo High was next with 36. Daly City's Jefferson and Westmoor had 12 apiece. Out-of-county students received 123 of the total 556 citations.

Westmoor High's Doris Lindfors, journalism-newspaper instructor, will study at Columbia University in New York City this summer via a scholarship grant from the National Newspaper Fund, underwritten by the Wall Street Journal.

Doris was among 340 teachers from 49 states who were selected.

Despite the heat, New York is a great summer destination, and you can't beat Columbia for newspaper instruction.

Attractive Joan Gibson, who works for Chamber of Commerce President Lou Pisani at the top-of-the-hill Bank of America, resigned as secretary to the Chamber last week.

She's "missus" Gibson and she's expecting.

Alyce Shea of Westlake Improvement Association, a prolific lady with pen and pencil, was hired by the Chamber to fill the vacancy.

Sea Scout Skipper Jay Irick, the Westlake bank man, leaves the local ship next week and the change of command ceremony will be conducted in his honor.

Irick and his family are moving away from Daly City.

The community needs more family men and youth devotees of his caliber.

Jovial Joe Rohl, lean and dignified Daly City office manager for PG&E, says his main claim to notoriety is having a record of perfect attendance at Cal-Stanford Big Games.

Joe hasn't missed a Big One since the day he departed the Berkeley sod as "a Cal man and a proud one."

Rohl didn't give us an accounting on this number of years but we'll take his word for it.

Local model Paula Lane and her hubby next month will leave their Broadmoor home for Sherman Oaks, California, right in Hollywood's backyard.

Paula has been promised a movie and TV contract, while her better half, Hayden Hamilton, will leave the gas station business for the real estate field.

Among other achievements, Paula once served on the Broadmoor Property Owners Association board of directors. Professionally, she's one of the busiest models in the Bay Area. Last year Paula was a stand-in for Lana Turner on location in Pacifica.

Broadmoor folks ruffled because they were included in Daly City's 1960 census count?

First reports issued the newspapers had Daly City's total at 48,189, second behind San Mateo and ahead of Redwood City

Later, it was learned that the census talliers forgot to separate B'moor and DC. This done, Daly City was readjusted to read around 42,500. The warm bodies in Broadmoor therefore must number close to 5500, give or take a few.

Redwood City sweated it out for the second-largest-in-the-county "correction."

Architect John Gloe's fee for designing Daly City's new firehouse and library amounts to a total of $13,663. The library construction cost the city $143,700, and the firehouse building slightly over $95,000.

Irving R. Levine, veteran news correspondent, has come up with a fine book about the Soviets, entitled "Main Street, U.S.S.R."

He points out that there are 20 million more women than males in the Russian Republic. Hard labor and professional work are shouldered by the Soviet ladies in great multitudes. For example, most of the postmen are women, and 76 percent of the Soviet doctors are too.

No wonder Khrushchev has so much time for the banquet circuit.

On to Moscow, men!

Trustees Approve Repair Work At Westmoor Bank

Jefferson High School District trustees Monday night agreed to pay for repairs to the Westmoor bank so as not to impair the work.

Superintendent Edward Morgan said that the suit, naming the Callan property owners as defendants, has been served but by the time the trial is actually set the rainy season may be here. If that should happen, he noted, more serious damage may occur at the site.

Morgan added that the District Attorney stated that the district's doing the work would not hinder their case. Board members estimated it may take more than a year for the case to come to trial and approved taking money from the general fund of the district. The suit is for "$120,000 more or less."

FAMILY LIFE OF THE OSTRICH

Paternally and maternally the ostriches have an unusual arrangement.

Each male ostrich, according to the National Automobile Club, has several wives. The wives all lay their eggs in the same nest. Then they go about their business and leave father to do all the work of hatching out the large new family.

Jefferson School Districts Fastest Growing In County

Superintendent Edward Morgan told Jefferson High School District trustees that the district leads in percentage of growth, according to average daily attendance figure comparing May 1959 with May 1960.

"We have risen by 17.50 per cent in daily attendance while the Jefferson Elementary District is second at 17.16 per cent," Morgan noted.

160 'Duffers' Eye Chambe Golf Laurels

One hundred and sixty performers of various abilities will swing for prizes this Thursday in the sixth annual Daly City Chamber of Commerce golf tournament at Lake Merced Country Club.

It will be a busy day for the duffers. The foursomes begin making the rounds at 8:15 a.m. and the awards dinner starts at 7:30 p.m. in the clubhouse.

Merchants have donated the most prizes ever offered in the annual event. Chairman Pete Markovich counted 41 awards early in the week "with many more to come."

Fire Department To Have Annual Memorial Rites

Daly City's fire department will hold its annual Memorial Day service at the Central Fire Station, 151 Lake Merced boulevard, at 10 a.m. Monday.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy says the public is invited to attend the services for deceased firemen. Some 65 have died since serving the city.

The ceremony will include placing a wreath over the bell in front of the fire station and a short prayer by Father Timothy Monahan of Our Lady of Mercy Parish. Boy Scout Troop No. 65, a firemen sponsored group, will attend the rites.

This is the second year that wreath will be placed over the bell. Battalion Chief Wayne Alexander said the practice of placing flags over the graves of deceased firemen has been replaced with this ceremony. Alexander said firemen also send cards to families of the deceased.

TEENER LEADS POLICEMAN ON 80 MPH CHASE

A Daly City 15-year-old boy led Officer Ralph Warren on a hectic chase, travelling South on Mission street at speeds in excess of 80 miles per hour, before the truck he had stolen over-turned at Chestnut street and Old Mission road Saturday at 3:55 a.m.

Warren said he saw the Galileo High School sophomore going 50 miles per hour on Mission street. The boy increased his speed when Warren turned on the red lights and siren. The teener travelled on the North bound lanes causing oncoming vehicles to go off the road.

The officer said the boy was "mildly intoxicated." The youngster told Warren that he had consumed beer and "felt like going for a ride." He found the unlocked truck of Bobby Atkinson, 287 ½ Niantic avenue, and hot wired the ignition with tin foil.

Atkinson described the truck as in good condition when stolen. "Poor condition" was the notation when it was returned.

Fred Bertetta Heads Callan Campaign

The re-election campaign of Thomas J. Callan Sr., who represents the north county First District on the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, moved into high gear this week in the Daly City-Westlake area.

Fred Bertetta, former Daly City councilman and Callan's county general chairman, said today that voting support for Callan in his home area is gaining momentum. He indicated that the two-term, incumbent candidate will receive an even greater voting majority here than that accorded him four years ago.

TOM CALLAN, SR.

Betetta pointed out that Callan has proven through his devoted interest in his job as supervisor that he is outstandingly qualified to continue to give citizens here the kind of representation they want and deserve from those they select to serve on the county's highest elected post.

In Bertetta's opinion, Callan, because of his lifetime residency in the north county, has an intimate knowledge of the problems and needs of his home communities.

"Supervisor Callan," Bertetta said, "has actively participated over the years in innumerable civic and governmental projects for the betterment of the north county."

"He has given a vast amount of his time and energy on a voluntary basis for over a quarter of a century to such worthy local activities as school improvements, recreational projects, sanitation needs, orderly residential and commercial development, and adequate health and welfare services."

Bertetta reminded taxpayers that during his terms in office, Supervisor Callan has resisted all proposals for the unnecessary expansion of county services which would add to taxpayer's annual bills.

"Supervisor Callan has repeatedly stated that his greatest responsibility to citizens is to see that the cost of county government is kept at the lowest possible figure and within the means of all taxpayers to meet these costs."

"Although Supervisor Callan retired from business several years ago, he is still one of the county's largest property owners. In addition to his obligation to all taxpayers, he has personal reasons for keeping taxes at an absolute minimum. Any increase in taxes is perhaps of greater concern to him than most taxpayers."

Bertetta said "Callan is firmly convinced that no person, regardless of his ability, can hope to work effectively for the residents of the county by devoting only second energies to the job of supervisor."

"A supervisor whose outside business interests demand his constant attention, will find that they will seriously interfere with the duties of his elected position."

"Supervisor Callan," Bertetta emphasized "is a fulltime supervisor and will continue as such when re-elected."

LITTLE LEAP

... OVER A B'G BOULDER

With Lou Lucia

For this particular column perhaps we should have used the title "Little Water . . . OVER THE ROCKS with The Barkeep."

In a recent article in this paper there was a story that noted in Daly City there are 12,186 registered democrats, 5874 republicans and 2 prohibitionists. At face value this means little, but the 2 prohibitionists are more than any of the surrounding cities and towns have.

This is cause for great speculation. This majority here is still in the minority. It seems that everybody likes to punch the minority while they're down so we'll give our lemon twist to the story.

Elliott Ness found that prohibition won't work. Week after week he destroys gin mill after bathtub cork and seems to never reach the bottom. In essence, if he weren't glorified he would probably be wearing a green pimento olive between his teeth with stem dangling.

When a man and wife sit in domestic serenity watching this TV show they probably think of that popular song, "Cop-Tales for Two." Actually, we really enjoy the program, so let's get back to drinking . . . errr, writing about prohibition.

In all sincerity, you have to hand it to people who stand by their coffee cups. They unflinchingly stand pat to what they believe in, even though in the minority. This is a sign of faith in their beliefs.

However, if they should like to waver a bit we would recommend the Westside Warehouse at the Steak Pit. The reasoning here is that the "Warehouse" is modeled after a speakeasy of the '20's. It always seems better when you think you're getting away with something. For a typical illustration, consider that guy Adam and his wife Eve . . . but that's an old and involved tale.

We went to the speakeasy. Not being alive during the prohibition days we talked in a whisper for nearly an hour before being told a "speakeasy" was not all that the word implied.

You'd never find a member of the prohibition ticket at a wine tasting party. A wine tasting party is where you take a sip from each bottle and the one-way conversation goes something like this. "This one's good. Ah! excellent. This third one has just the right bouquet. Thish sheventeenth one ish good too."

Enough of this rambling on about drink. If we have offended the two local prohibition advocates we hope they will consider it just "water under the bridge."

Korea Veterans Have 8 Years For Schooling

Q—I'm going to take evening college courses under the Korean GI Bill, and I realize I'll have to spread out the school work over quite a period, since I have a full-time job. How much time do I have to complete training? I was discharged in mid-1958.

A—Korea veterans have eight years from discharge or until January 31, 1965, whichever comes earlier, to complete training. In no event may a veteran take training after January 31, 1965.

• • • •

Q—I understand that no new GI insurance is being issued except to Korea veterans who have some service-connected disabilities, but what other conditions must be met for a veteran to be eligible?

A—To be eligible for new GI insurance, a Korea veteran must have a service-connected disability so rated by the VA, and must apply within one year from the date VA rates him service-connected.

• • • •

Q—Who gets the money allowance from VA where a child is taking courses under the War Orphans Education program, the student or the parent or guardian?

A—Usually the allowance is paid to the parent or guardian of the young man or woman going to school. There are, however, cases where the money may be paid to the young person directly.

• • • •

Q—My wife and I both signed the note for my GI loan. Can we both be released from liability to VA, if we sell our house? The buyer we have in mind will take over the unpaid balance of the loan.

A—You may both be released, as long as the legal conditions for release are met. The new buyer must put it in writing that he will buy your property and assume the balance of your loan. He must also satisfy VA that he is a good credit risk.

Teachers To The Rescue

4 LITTLE DUCKLINGS 'REVIVE' SPIRITS AT VISTA MAR SCHOOL

Vista Mar students of Mrs. Oberlander's second grade and Miss Wade's kindergarten were thrilled this week with the arrival of four little ducklings! The children in both classes have been incubating duck eggs the past thirty days.

As the day for hatching drew nearer, tension mounted throughout the school. Everyone was listening for the first peep and signs of the shells cracking. Mrs. Marge O'Connor, a parent, graciously accepted the chore of "baby sitting" the eggs on the weekends, turning the eggs four or five times a day, and maintaining careful vigilance to be certain that the light burned continuously.

On the final weekend, Mrs. Margaret Bosbery, the school secretary, and Miss Marjorie Tobias, the principal, made perfodic checks to see that the light was still burning. As the time grew shorter, the children began to bring food to feed the new babies. Kerry Milton, a kindergarten, and her brother Dennis Milton, built a cage for the ducklings.

Pediatricians and veterinarians were consulted regarding proper feeding and temperature control. Brooders were set up to keep the newly hatched ducklings warm. All was in readiness!

At last the thirtieth day arrived. Nothing happened! There was much speculation as to the chances of the eggs hatching. As the thirty-second day faded into evening, Mrs. Oberlander and Miss Wade made a hasty trip to the country and secured four ducklings, three days old.

The children are delighted with their new little "adopted" pets, even though they didn't actually see them hatch. Reservations for the ducklings have already been secured at an attractive farm in Santa Rosa when they retire from Vista Mar School.

W'moor Teacher Receives Journal Fund Scholarship

Doris E. Lindfors, Westmoor journalism and English instructor, was among 12 Northern California teachers who received Wall Street Journal Newspaper Fund Scholarships for summer study in journalism.

The program, according to the Journal, is designed to encourage more talented young people to choose journalism as a career by assisting high school newspaper advisors and journalism teachers.

Mrs. Lindfors, 926 Rockdale drive, San Francisco, is the wife of Pertti Lindfors, an attorney and Finnish Consul General. She has instructed at Westmoor since the school opened in 1957.

The fund scholarship award will allow her tuition, travel expenses and expenses while attending the Columbia University Journalism Fellowship.

She was formerly yearbook advisor and English instructor at Encinal High School and Nyack Senior High School in New York. She received her A.B. degree from Keuka College, New York and master's degree from the University of Wisconsin.

Westmoor Principal Glenn South said that Mrs. Lindfors has spent three summers doing additional work at the University of California. The talented woman also received a scholarship at San Francisco State but turned it down in favor of the Columbia University fellowship.

Two-Year-Old Boy Has Scalp Injury

Michael Patrick Ryan, 2 years, 220 Lake Merced boulevard, apartment 22, had three stitches taken in his scalp last Sunday evening following a fall at the apartment.

Margaret M. Ryan, 31, notified police that her son had fallen and cut his head. Firemen, already at the scene, temporarily stopped the bleeding by giving first aid treatment. The boy was brought to Junipero Serra Hospital by Police Officer Matthew Murray.

Westlaker Joins Ranks Of Exclusive 'Appraisal Institute'

Westlake resident Thomas J. Gill, District Appraisal Officer for Bank of America, has won the coveted title "Member, Appraisal Institute." The M.A.I. designation was awarded by the Governing Council of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers at its recent meeting in Chicago.

Only 2900 real estate appraisers in the United States belong to this exclusive membership.

Gill, who lives at 44 Baldwin avenue, with his wife, Natalie, son Thomas, 10, and daughter, Mary Patricia, 6, has been a real estate appraiser for Bank of America the past nine years. He is presently manager of the bank's district appraisal office for San Mateo and northern Santa Clara counties.

He attended Golden Gate College, San Francisco; the U.S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Connecticut, and Stanford University. He is an associate member of the Redwood City-San Carlos-Belmont Board of Realtors. He is also a member, past president and past secretary of the San Francisco Chapter, American Society of Appraisers.

Daly City Sea Scouts Await Big Ancient Mariner Regatta

The biggest event of the year for Daly City's Sea Scouts, the annual Ancient Mariner Regatta, will be held at the UC Coast Guard Base, Alamenda, over Memorial Day weekend. There will be nearly 1000 Sea Scouts participating, coming from the five Western states.

This is to be the final regatta for the ship's skipper, Jay F. Irick. The next day he will turn over command of the ship to the mate, Bob Gunthorp. The formal ceremonies will be held on the evening of May 31 at the auditorium of the sponsoring unit, the Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association.

As in the past, the Daly City boats will be used at the regatta for one of the major team events. Brucee Wilson, Westmoor High School senior, will act as the ship's coxswain in leading the unit through the various competitions while Irick and Gunthorp will be acting elsewhere as judges.

It is interesting to reflect that, at each regatta in which Daly City's Sea Scouts have participated, each year has shown a higher degree of training and education in seamanship, which in turn has led to each year's award being in a higher class than the previous year's. At 1960's Ancient Mariner, there is little doubt that the unit will achieve its highest award yet.

It is unfortunate for a few lads, newly joining the Sea Scouts, that they cannot participate this year. Enrolling of participants has been closed because of the limited bunking and ship berthing facilities at the Coast Guard base. However, these new lads are in for a summer-long session of sailing and training in small boat handling at Lake Merced, during the usual school vacation.

One of the most interesting events at the regatta is the pulling boat race, in which the Daly City boys usually score high. The Coast Guard furnishes whaleboats, heats are run between competing ships, and when the field has narrowed down the last day of the regatta.

Coast Guard ships are thrown open for tours by the lads, and the facilities of the recreation rooms, gymnasium, swimming pool and post theater are allowed the scouts without charge. The sole cost to the participants is a nominal 50 cents per meal.

Darryl Deinhard, soon to be the ship's new executive officer (second in command), has arranged for special evening drill and instruction before the regatta. These classes will be continued in addition to the usual ship's meetings on Tuesday evenings at the WSIA auditorium.

Darryl will be assisted by Frank De Martini Jr., also to be appointed a ship's officer on the evening of May 31.

Darryl is currently boatswain's mate, and Frank is boatswain. Bruce Wilson, coxswain, will be promoted to boatswain to replace Deinhard and De Martini.

Registration Date For Summer Camp Children June 6

The Department of Parks and Recreation will open registration for the 1960 Summer Day Camp on June 6, at the War Memorial Community Center.

Registration fee will be $3 per session for each camper. The campers will be transported to and from Junipero Serra County Park daily during the three-day session. Pick-up points will be resignated at a later date.

Children 8-12, residing within the Jefferson Elementary School District, may attend the camp. Proof of birthdate may be asked.

Registration hours will be from 8:30-12 noon and 1-5 p.m. For further information, call PL 5-0850, Ext. 18.

Bill Sweeney Backs Hatch For Supervisor

A volunteer citizens committee for the Westlake-Daly City area assisting in the re-election of Supervisor Alvin S. Hatch will conduct a vigorous campaign here during the next two weeks to gain voter support for the incumbent candidate on June 7.

William G. Sweeney, Daly City, who has endorsed Hatch's candidacy, said this week that the veteran supervisor has shown by his outstanding record in office that he has the proven ability to continue to serve residents here as their representative on the board of supervisors.

"The vast amount of valuable experience Supervisor Hatch has acquired in guiding the orderly development of our county during its greatest period of growth is an asset which county voters will consider when casting their ballots next month," Sweeney said.

Sweeney pointed out, "Supervisor Hatch has always strongly advocated economy in county government and a moderate tax rate. He has worked to keep taxes down by seeking to bring new industries to the county that would broaden the tax base and lessen the individual taxpayers burden."

"In addition to his industrial program, Supervisor Hatch has encouraged the establishing of the county as a convention and visitors center which would not only bring benefits to businessmen here, but would also provide an entirely new source of tax revenue," Sweeney said.

"It was Supervisor Hatch," Sweeney said, "who, as a member of the 1932 county board of freeholders, helped write the charter change which resulted in a more efficient form of county government."

"He was also the leader in the successful fight to retain the Butano Forest as a public-owned scenic and recreational site. Hatch's untiring efforts on behalf of the Pillar Point Breakwater on the coastside assisted in making this worthy project possible."

"Hatch's long list of accomplishments while in public office include the setting up of the first county planning commission and the first county recreation commission. He also served for 30 years on the elementary school board in his home area."

FOURTH GRADERS TOUR PEANUT PLANT IN SF

The fourth garde classes of Miss Ruth Lazore and Mrs. Dorothy Malone at Colma K-6 School were recent visitors to Planters Peanut plant in San Francisco. This was a part of their study of the industries of California.

The tour of the plant was most thorough. Starting in the storage rooms, the classes experienced a most interesting observation of the complete processing of the peanuts. They viewed the sorting, cleaning, and roasting of the peanuts. They saw them being made into peanut butter, coated with chocolate, boxed, bagged, canned or packaged in readiness for shipment.

This experience of the children was recorded in written stories, illustrations and letters of thanks.

Mothers who accompanied the groups included the Mesdames Nappi, Johnson, Grant, Acosta, Edgman, Peroni, Rosetti, and Rajkowski.

Jeff Frosh Show Talent At Assembly

The freshman class of Jefferson High presented a talent assembly May 18 in the gym. These 14-year-olds surprised the upper classmen by featuring "Bach to Jazz."

The program included: the commentator, Judy Reginelli (pantomime), Herman and Hilda to "I Love My Baby" with Jane Monson and Joyce Gaggero; (hula), "Little Grass Shack in Kalaku, Hawaii" by Dolly Takeson; (commercial), "Ajax The Foaming Toothpaste" with Joyce Gaggero, Ken Klassen, Judy Guzzo, Carol Alexander, Tom Morretti; (soft shoe) to "Me and My Shadow," by Lauren Fehl and Joyce Di Maggio; (piano).

"Rhapsody in Blue" and "Solfeggietto" (Bach), by Kitty Kavanaugh; (comedy majorettes) "Washington Post March," Judy Allen, Carman Stephens, Gio Velez, Susie Peterson.

Song, "Moon-Glow" by Erie Ward; (dance) "Charleston" by Penny Almquist, Cheryl Newman, Lauren Fehl; (commercial) "Soft as Cement Marble Cake Mix" by Joyce Gaggero, Judy Guzzo, Tom Morretti; (song) "La Petits" by Paulette Frazier, Erie Harrison, Johnny Harrison; prop helpers: Darryle Crist, Walter Pickering, Jim Bowles, Vic Brandolino, Renee Champagne; records: Carolyn Aiello, Sharon Carr, and David Fazington.

Sea Scouts' Skipper Due Big Sendoff

Responses to invitations to the ceremony honoring retiring Skipper Jay F. Irick of the Daly City Sea Scouts have been pouring in. Irick retires May 31, turning over command to Westlake Robert Gunthrop, who has been the ship's mate.

Invited are Mayor Francis Pacelli, members of the Daly City Council, and Judges Frank Blum and Charles Becker. Supervisor Thomas J. Callan also intends to be present at the colorful and traditional change of command ceremonies.

The Sea Scout unit is sponsored by the Westlake Subdivisions Improvement Association. It is expected that there will be between 70 and 100 well-wishers present, including officers and petty officers of other ships, as well as the highest ranking Sea Sout Officers of the San Francisco Council, to which the Daly City Ship belongs.

The unit recently received four new members. A few vacancies still exist in this limited-membership group for interested young men.

GREEK ORTHODOX CEREMONIES

Brotherhood Way Churches --- Holy Trinity Sets Dedication

Dedication ceremonies for the new Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church on Brotherhood Way near Lake Merced are scheduled for Sunday, June 5, when Archbishop Lakovos will conduct a service of blessing on the 8½ acres property.

The site ceremony at 1 p.m. will be followed at 7 p.m. the same day with a dedication banquet in the Gold Room of the Fairmont Hotel.

Construction of the first increment of the planned $600,000 Holy Trinity Church and School is to begin this September. The Holy Trinity project is one of four churches to be built side-by-side along Brotherhood Way. Jewish congregation Temple Judea, the Church of Christ, and Masonic Lodge also are planning ultra-modern religious centers along the same area.

The present Holy Trinity Church, located at 345 Seventh street, San Francisco, is 60 years old. The parish is the oldest Greek Orthodox parish in the West and the twelfth oldest Greek parish in the United States. Pastor is Father Anthony Kosturos, a native of San Francisco.

Dr. Gus Kerhulas, building fund chairman, said the new Holy Trinity Church will be designed to accommodate a seating capacity of 900 to 1200. It will feature circular Byzantine construction with 12 pillars symbolizing the 12 Apostles, and on the ground level will be 15 classrooms for Sunday School and possibly a Greek School. Additional plans call for a basketball center and recreation facilities, according to George Kartinos, president of the congregation.

Architects for the new Greek church are Reid, Rockwell, Banwell, Tarics and Associates, whose offices are located in San Francisco.

Municipal Judge Charles Becker of Westlake, a leader in Temple Judea's building fund drive, originated the "Brotherhood Way" naming of the street of churches. This was more than two years ago when representatives of the four congregations bid on the undeveloped property at San Francisco City Hall.

WESTMOOR HIGH PTA

Bruce McChesney, Hazel Robinson, Webb Parker Win Scholarships

Westmoor PTA's final Spring meeting featured three scholarship awards presented by outgoing president, Mrs. Larry Green.

Palmiro Nolli presented the treasurer's report and it was approved by the auditor, W. B. Parker. James Cooper, vice president and program chairman, introduced the first speaker, Charles E. Vincent, acting director of parks and recreation for Daly City.

Vincent stated that 18 sites would be operating under the direction of the city for 10 weeks commencing June 20. He explained the extensive program planned and the age groups which would benefit from the various activities. Some of the special activities offered are arts and crafts, baseball, music, story hour, dramatics, tennis instruction, tumbling and specialized movies. Also, the program will be integrated with offerings of the YWCA to include golf and swimming under the direction of Jefferson High School staff. Most of the activities will cost a small fee to help defray expenses.

The summer camp, conducted during the daytime last year, will be repeated and expanded this year and will include a five-day camp experience for handicapped children.

The director of parks and recreation for the city of Pacifica, Elwood Locker, spoke on the program and facilities offered under his supervision. He stressed the opportunity available to high school students who wished to volunteer their services for the summer as assistants. He cited the case of Bruce McChesney who served as an assistant for two summers and was now being employed as a junior supervisor. McChesney was a recipient of one of the scholarship awards.

Cooper thanked Principal Glenn South, Mrs. Green and the executive board for helping him to conduct outstanding programs.

The scholarship awards went to McChesney, who plans to study food technology at the University of California in Davis; Hazel Robinson, who plans to enter San Francisco State College, and Jay Webb Parker, who will attend the University of California School of Pharmacy.

The past president's pin was given to Mrs. Green and she turned the gavel over to the new president, Palmiro Nolli. He stated his aims for the coming year and invited everyone to the cafeteria for refreshments which were served under the direction of Mrs. Robert Goodwin, hospitality chairman.

Jeff's North Coast Hopes Rest With B 1320 Speedsters

Three B's and one varsity trackman will represent Jefferson at the North Coast Sectional Meet at the University of California in Berkeley Saturday.

The lads gained the right to competition by finishing within the first three places at the Group II meet at Westmoor last Saturday.

Gary Molossi, who tied for third in the varsity high jump at 6 feet, will be the only varsity man making the trek.

B's are Willie White, third in the 70 yard high hurdles at 9.3; Bob Alverio, third in the 1320 at 3:21.0; and Anibal Davila, first in the 1320 at 3:18.5. Davila, running the 1320 for the first time this year, missed the school record by only two-tenths of a second.

Coach Bob Watt looked over all records of 1320 men and decided to place Davila in the B competition event, yanking him from the varsity mile in which he had already led the Peninsula League for swift timing this year.

His estimate of Davila's ability paid off as Anibal left the rest of the field behind him. Davila would have set a best time for Peninsula League 1320 men this year if the mark was made in PL competition. Alverio's clocking of 3:21.0 was the best for him this year.

Others participating at Westmoor Saturday were Ted Marquez and Joe Reynaga. Marquez was fourth in the 660 while Reynaga did not place in the broadjump.

Watt said both Davila and Alverio looked very good and have a chance of winning at the North Coast meet. He also expects Molossi and White to be within the first five placers.

Ram Baseballers Annex Crown As Katona Wins

Westmoor won their first ever major sport crown as Coach Rod Losberger's baseballers became Peninsula League champions last Friday.

The Rams come-from-behind 3-2 win over Capuchino, coupled with Hillsdale's losing a two hitter to South City's Dan Emmett, 2-0, brought the three-year-old school the flag.

Hilltopper wins over both Capuchino and South City last week built up to the 11th consecutive league triumph and 13th in a row including practice games. Sparkling relief piching by Don Katona, now 5-0, turned the trick.

Terry Christman got through the first two innings against Cap but left with the bases jammed in the third. Katona strolled in from rightfield and was worked to a 3-2 count by third baseman Dixie Howell. He finally walked Howell to force one run across the platter. He struck out clean-up man Herb Elmore and got hard hitting Roger Dabney on an infield fly.

Shortstop Rich Morales committed his first league error on Neil Calhoon's bouncer. One run crossed the plate on the miscue. Katona took opposing pitcher Wally Bunker's grounder and threw him out to retire the side. Pacifican Don set down the next 12 batters to face him.

The Rams took the lead in the fourth inning. Tom McHugh reached base as Howell bobbled his hot ground ball. Tom stole second and tallied on Bill Dougherty's clothesline single over second base. Dougherty went to second on the late throw home and scored on Katona's one base knock. Jim Heick singled to left, Katona scoring as the leftfielder heaved the ball into the stands.

Westmoor had 7 hits while the Mustangs could account for only 3.

The Los-men had an easier triumph against South City, pounding 10 hits at Marchbanks Park last Tuesday to skip home, 6-1. Losberger's mastery over the Warriors continued as the Rams have yet to lose a league game to the South City nine. In fact, one season the Hilltop baseballers won but two games and both were against Bob Brian's crew.

Barry Krohn hurled the first three innings and allowed but one hit. He was pulled when he became sick and Katona took over at the firing line. Don pitched the final four frames, allowing one earned run and three hits.

The annual South City licking started in the second inning. Dougherty doubled down the rightfield line and Katona was hit with a pitched ball. Both advanced on an error and tallied as Jim Heick rolled a grounder past the pulled in infield.

Westmoor scored three more in the third. Morales singled to right and stole second. He scored standing up as McHugh's wind blown double fell safely. Tom raced home on Katona's single, the latter moving to second on the throw in. Walthard's double to left chased the pitcher across the plate.

Katona was again involved in the final inning score. He singled, reached second on an error and tallied on Bill Reynolds line drive single to center. Emmett, who pitched the first three innings and was the loser, was relieved by Duke Tadday.

SIDELIGHTS: DOUGHERTY took over team leadership in batting with .448. Other higher ups are KROHN, .440; MORALES, .429; and KATONA, .385. KROHN and KATONA are both 5-0. Only two Ram regulars are not over .300, WALTHARD and HEICK. MORALES has hit safely in all 12 league games. In fact, he has collected at least one hit in each of the last 20 games.

How Closely Do You Follow Local High Schoolers?

If you follow sports in The Record or Westlake Times you may find this short test easy. All the questions deal with either Westmoor or Jefferson. More than eight correct answers is a creditable performance. All are true-false.

1. The big Jefferson - South San Francisco rivalry in football now stands Jefferson 18, wins, 13 losses and four ties.

2. Westmoor's Dave Dunbar, in 1959, set a new prep record by clocking 1:52.2 in the 880.

3. The score of last fall's Westmoor - Jefferson football game was: Rams 14, Jefferson, 6.

4. Don Mossi, now pitching for the Detroit Tigers, is a graduate of Jefferson High.

5. Westmoor's baseballers won this year's Peninsula League title. It is the second major sports title for the Rams. They also won the track crown last year.

6. Jeff's star miler Anibal Davila, only a junior, is notable because he runs that distance without shoes.

7. Rich Morales leads the Westmoor baseball team in hitting in this, his second year of varsity ball.

8. Jefferson met Westmoor in basketball twice last year and both times lost varsity contests.

9. Gary Molossi led Jeff scoring in the cage sport while Barry Krohn paced Westmoor.

10. Both Jeff and Westmoor have players named Eastman on their rosters. Sabin plays shortstop and left field for the Indians while Doug pitches for the Rams.

Mezzeramen Take Two

MORTOLA'S HOT BAT LEADS JEFF PAST BEARCATS

Rich Mortola's hot bat, now sizzling at .471 with 10 runs batted in, led Jeff to a 6-3 win over San Mateo last Tuesday at the Bearcats' diamond.

The victory, at least temporarily, moved the Indians into a third place tie with Capuchino, one half game ahead of the Bearcats.

San Mateo's Fred Suggs, trying to start anew after an 18-hit attack by Westmoor the previous game, was again pounced on by a Daly City nine. Jeff raked Suggs and reliefer Pete Nepote, both righthanders, for 14 hits.

Fred lasted but one inning as Jeff scored a trio of runs. Sonny Stoller singled, stole two bases and glided home on a ground out. Rich Mortola found an open hole in the outfield and whistled a line drive for a homer. Back to back doubles by Tony Montalbo and Karl Keeling scored the third run.

Steve Mezzera's crew scored two more in the third. Mike Kennedy walked and advanced to third base while Tom McEntee, who had singled, moved up on an error. Don Staff singled both runners home.

In the fourth, Mortola singled and stole second. He was cut down at the plate while trying to score on Montalbo's single. Tony went to second on the play and later stole third, tallying on Keeling's long hoist to leftfield.

San Mateo scored twice in the third and once in the sixth off the put-put pitches of "Slow Stuff" Staff. Staff yielded but six hits while walking and striking out four Bearcats.

Leading the hitting attack was Mortola (3 for 4), Staff and Montalbo (2 for 4) and Stoller (2 for 3).

JACK FUERTES, rabbit-quick centerfielder for Jeff High's baseballers, is shown holding the bat but he excels mostly wtih a glove in his hand. Quick moves and sound judgment make him a permanent fixture in the outer garden. He is a junior.

Rice has been called the "staff of life" for half the world.

INDIANS NURSE THREE HITS TO 3-2 VICTORY

Steve Mezzera's baseballers nursed three hits into three runs and a 3-2 win over Burlingame last Friday at Jefferson's field.

The Panthers collected eight hits off Stan Montalbo but the righthanded speedballer kept them well enough scattered to prevent losing the tilt. Stan walked five and struck out a like number. Montalbo's record is now 4-3.

All three runs were plated in the second inning by Jeff off two singles. Tony Montalbo led off with a walk and reached third base as the catcher allowed two pitches to get away from him. Karl Keeling singled Montalbo home with the first run.

Mike Kennedy laid down a bunt in an attempt to sacrifice and found himself safe at first base on the play. Both Keeling and Kennedy moved up a base as Bobby With bunted them along. Rich Mortola's fly ball was garbled by leftfielder Woodell and both runners sped home.

With picked up the third and final single for Jeff in a later inning. The Panthers tallied once in the third and again in the fifth inning.

Ram Golfers Defeat Jeff 'T-men', 17-4

Westmoor's golfers may have a chance at wresting the tee crown from league leading Burlingame at Thursday's championship matches at Sharp Park.

The Rams defeated Jeff's golfers, 17-4, last Tuesday at the Lake Merced course. Winning 7-2 decisions for the Hilltoppers were Mike Seelig, Bob Snyder, Sam Malta and Jim Roman. Marty Seelig won by a 3-0 score.

Picking up two of the Indians points were Jim Fair and J. Supanich.

THREE INDIANS ON ALL-FOE BASEBALLERS

Three Jefferson baseballers were included in the all-opponent baseball team as chosen by Westmoor pennant winning Coach Rod Losberger. Jefferson infielders Karl Keeling and Rich Mortola along with pitcher Stan Montalbo were the selectees.

Losberger's choices:
1b—Woody Knapp, San Mateo
2b—Karl Keeling, JEFFERSON ss—John Skuza, South City
3b—Rich Mortola, JEFFERSON
lf—John Hansen, San Mateo
cf—Larry Schilbe, Burlingame
rf—Mike McIver, Hillsdale
c—Steve Berry, Capuchino
p—Stan Montalbo, JEFFERSON
p—Wally Bunker, Capuchino

Westmoor Trackmen To Send Four B's, Three Varsity Men To NCS

Seven Westmoor trackmen gained the right to compete in Saturday's North Coast Section meet at Berkeley by finishing within the first five men.

Forty-seven schools, including 450 high schoolers and 125 coaches, filled the Westmoor arena for the Division II meet last Saturday.

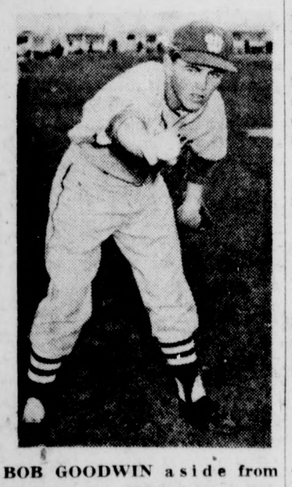
Junior Jim Buccelli racehorsed to his best ever time, 1:24.9, to capture second place in the Class B 660, just one half a second behind Smith of Ravenswood, the winner.

George Herbst took fourth in both the 330 and 150 to qualify while Tom Dake sped to a 13.2 in the 120 low hurdles, good for second place. The 440 relay team of Herbst Buccelli, Danke and Walt Prouty was second.

Varsity performers making the grade were Jim Sershen, fifth place in the 880; Dennis Chase, who tied for third with a pole vault of 12 feet even; and Roger Johnson, who broad-jumped 22 feet, 2 inches, to nail down third place.

Westmoor was third in Class B tabulations with 19 points while Jefferson was behind Capuchino in fifth place with 14 points. The Rams were 13th among varsity teams with Jefferson 16th.

San Mateo, tracksters who dominated the Peninsula League, were first in B competition with 70 ½ points and second in varsity scoring with 40 points. Menlo-Atherton was the varsity victor with a total of 50 ½ markers.



BOB GOODWIN aside from pitching for Rod Losberger's Westmoor baseballers is student president at the school. He recorded a 2-3 record last year. This is his third year with the Ram varsity. He tentatively plans on attending USF next year.
